august 1951

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART FOR RELEASE CLEVELAND 6. OHIO

TELEPHONE: GARFIELD 1-7340

auf og

A brilliant winter promises at The Cleveland Museum of Art. There will be separate exhibitions of such important modern painters and Ensor, Odilon Redon, and Henri Matisse and of contemporary Lyonel Feininger. "Knife, Fork and Spoon" will respond to the universal delight in silver, showing the development of table service from primitive man to ourselves today. There will also be exhibitions of British Drawings, contemporary Berlin Artists, and many educational shows.

The Museum's educational program will sponsor the two-months residence of Dr. Helmut Hungerland who is in charge of graduate work in the California College of Arts and crafts for a series of lectures on "The Social Function of Art," gallery talks and conferences with students. Free courses will be "Fashions in Living, "Tradition and Today"and "Art through Travel." Dr. Thomas Munro will give "Design and Form in the Arts" with academic credit if desired. Other members' courses will be "Tuesdays at Eleven"

"Flower Arrangement", "Painting Flowers in Watercolors," "Laboratory in Modern Painting,"

"Studio Drawing and Painting" "Elementary Kodachrome Photography", "Pictorial Photography,"

"Clay Modeling and Ceramics," "Understanding Italian Art", "Sculpture" and the Saturday Afternoon Sketch Club for Amateurs". Call the Museum for the program leaflet.